

English Year 10 Summer Learning Overview

Speaking and Listening Preparation	Linked in work that broadens understanding	Anthology Poetry	Revision
Students will have: Planned and prepared a presentation in readiness for the speaking and listening exam which will be examined on return to school. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Choose a topic</li> <li>2. Write a speech</li> <li>3. Practice delivering the speech until they can do this with no notes (ideally) or very few cue cards</li> </ol>	Understand the power of War images	By the end of the Summer Term all students will have completed all Anthology Poetry. Making notes around the poems or creating revision resources. They will also undertake practice comparison questions.	Make revision notes on character and theme of: An Inspector Calls Macbeth Anthology Poetry
	Analyse the power of speeches		Practice essays on the texts above
	Explore the role of observer in War time through reading interviews and articles
	Explore the reality of Warfare through extracts of novels
	Look at Protest of war: Sassoon
	Compare perspectives of war looking at non-fiction		