

Year 7 RE/Citizenship overview and rationale

The curriculum starts with the Prevent agenda as we feel that challenging stereotyping and understanding the commitment to all for safety is the priority. Once this has been established it links into studying multi-culturalism as Ledbury is not a widely multi-cultural location and we feel it is important to ensure tolerance and understanding are promoted as swiftly as possible to all students.

The curriculum then switches to establishing religious tolerance and supporting faiths from across the world as well as supporting those without faith. This is used as the platform for understanding key Christian concepts which build on British Values such as tolerance. This is then widened to looking at a key religious concept of suffering across multi faiths.

The final module builds on empathy and tolerance which is a central theme and changes the focus from religious to political and humanitarian suffering and the role we can all play in combatting the difficulties facing local, national and international society.
