

Thriving children

Excellent and enjoyable learning

Achieving our individual best

A supportive community

1. PSHE

1. A comprehensive, taught PSHRE programme, delivered by tutors

1. Lessons and activities with learning outcomes focussed on well-being

1. Comprehensive induction and a taught behaviour curriculum

2. Careers

2. A careers curriculum with taught sessions in every year group

2. Opportunities to visit careers events, colleges and universities

2. Connections with local education providers employers

3. British values

3. Timetabled citizenship lessons in key stage three and 'Big Questions' in key stage four tutor time

3. Highly personalised careers support, with multiple 1-to-1 meetings for each student

3. Regular opportunities to engage with employers and professionals, including work experience

4. Enrichment

4. Enriching experiences across the curriculum, including educational visits

4. A comprehensive programme of enrichment activities

4. A House System where all participate and support one another

Pastoral support

The JMHS Pastoral Team fosters a sense of belonging, which is a strong platform for our personal development curriculum

A strong and well supported tutor team build relationships with students and their family

Weekly assemblies provide opportunities to celebrate together, deliver key messages and reinforce our school culture and values

Year leaders track participation in personal development activities and intervene proactively, and personally, to remove individual barriers