

Year Group: 10	Subject: Geography	Term: Autumn 2021
-----------------------	---------------------------	--------------------------

Topic	Key Learning points	Assessments
Autumn 1 Why are some tectonic hazards more deadly than others?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The earth crust consists of different plate that move (tectonic theory) • What evidence is there to suggest the plates have moved. • What hazards are associated with each plate boundary. • How are volcanoes formed • Why are volcanoes a risk • How do we mitigate those risks. 	Formal assessment: 30 minute end of topic assessment including multiple choice questions, skills questions, short answer questions and an extended writing task. Informal assessment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • True/false quizzes • Homework • Review questions • Literacy tasks
Autumn 2 Why are some tectonic hazards more deadly than others	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Where do you find earthquakes? • Why are earthquakes dangerous? • What is the difference between primary and secondary impacts? • Understand a real life case study are different economic levels (A High income and Low income country) • To know how you can protect yourself against these hazards.

