

Key Vocabulary for Summer Term Overviews

| Subject: Psychology Summer Term | | Year Group: 12 |
|--|---|-----------------------|
| Key Learning Points/End Points | Key Vocabulary | |
| Knowledge of the Humanistic and Psychodynamic approach to explaining behaviour | Hierarchy of needs, self-actualisation, congruence, incongruence, conditions of worth, unconditional positive regard, Free will. Unconscious, ID, Ego, Superego, denial, displacement, repression, psychosexual stages, Oedipus/Electra complex, fixations, androcentric. | |
| Knowledge of the brain and its function and biological rhythms | Localisation of function, motor area, somatosensory area, visual area, auditory area, Broca's area, Wernicke's area, hemispheric lateralisation, plasticity, functional recovery, functional magnetic resonance imaging [Fmri] EEG, ERPs, circadian rhythms, infradian rhythms, ultradian rhythms, endogenous pacemakers and exogenous zeitgebers | |
| Knowledge and application of research methods | Reliability, test retest, inter observer reliability, validity, face validity, concurrent validity, level of measurement, nominal, ordinal, interval data, critical value, type 1 / type 2 errors, abstract. | |