

Independent Study

In Geography you should...

1. After each lesson

After each lesson review your lesson notes and make a note of anything that you don't understand so that you can ask about this in the next lesson.

Use the A level textbook to add further detail to your written notes.

2. Weekly

Complete homework set on Epraise by both class teachers.

Use Geography revision sites, locate the pages relevant to the material that you have been covering in lessons.

Add any extra or interesting information to your notes.

3. Fortnightly

Add any new key terms to your topic glossaries.

Catch up on the latest global news to keep your wider knowledge up to date.

4. Termly

Complete revision notes using templates given by class teacher.

Go through knowledge organiser ensure that you do not have any gaps. Add to your notes if you do.

Use orange revision guide and textbook to add to your notes and complete revision activities.

Complete revision exam questions from: ALL Topics A2- Exam Qs .pdf

5. Throughout the year

We strongly recommend wider reading for each topic. Suggested reads:

- Tectonics – Disaster by Choice
- Globalisation – From Global to Local
- Superpowers – Divided, Prisoners of Geography, The Power of Geography, China's Asian Dream
- Carbon – The Burning Question
- Water – When the Rivers Run Dry
- Health, Human Rights and Intervention – BBC Global News
- Coasts – Use the news to update case studies (textbooks will be out of date)
