

Subject Curriculum Overview for Academic Year 2024/25

Subject: Health and Social Care		Subject Leader: Bethan Woolley	Year Group: 11	AUTUMN TERM
Topic	Key Learning Points		Key Vocabulary	Assessments
R035– Health Promotion Campaigns	End point: Students will have planned, delivered and evaluated a health promotion for an individual or a group, using the live brief set by the exam board for this academic year Students will complete this optional NEA unit which will allow them to explore the different types of health campaigns that are available. Students will cover: 1.1 The importance of a healthy society Reasons why a healthy society is important, how to control communicable diseases, how a healthy society decreases the cost of care, how a healthy society decreases sickness and dependency, how a healthy society will increase life expectancy. 1.2 Public health challenges for society Current challenges to public health including obesity, flu and viruses, alcohol consumption, heart disease/stroke, sexual health, cancer, physical activity, mental health, smoking cessation, child dental health. Organisations that promote public health challenges. 1.3 Current health promotion campaigns and their benefits What current health promotion campaigns exist, the benefits of a health promotion campaign and how these can affect individuals and society. Knowledge of which audience the health promotion campaign is targeting. 2.1 Factors influencing health and wellbeing Lifestyle choices individuals make that can affect their health, including their physical health and mental health. The impact of education and socio-economic factors to a person’s health and wellbeing. What access individuals have to health services		Society Target Audience Communicable disease Non-communicable disease Sickness Dependency Target audience Impact Socio economic factors Campaigns Healthy promotion PIES Feedback	Assessment will take place through the completion of R035 coursework, opportunity has been built in for feedback and improvements

Subject Curriculum Overview for Academic Year 2024/25

	2.2 Leading a healthy lifestyle What an individual can do to be healthy and how a health campaign can support an individual to make positive choices 2.3 Barriers to leading a healthy lifestyle What prevents an individual making unhealthy choices. 3.1 How to plan a health promotion campaign What are the aims of the campaign, to include what you want to change/improve/educate about, what are the aims related to PIES, what are the timescales, what are the resources needed, what are the safety considerations, what communication will be used during delivery, what is the appropriateness to individuals, what are the methods to be used to engage target audience, what feedback methods will be used 4.1 How to deliver a health promotion campaign Students will need to deliver a health campaign to a chosen audience and obtain feedback from the audience. 4.2 How to evaluate own performance Students will evaluate their presentation using the feedback given and suggest improvements
--	--	--	--

Subject Curriculum Overview for Academic Year 2024/25

Subject: Health and Social Care		Subject Leader: Bethan Woolley	Year Group: 11	SPRING TERM
Topic	Key Learning Points	Key Vocabulary	Assessments
R032 – Principles of care in health and social care settings	End Point: Students will have an good knowledge and understanding of the four topic areas Students will begin this examination unit by recapping previous taught content from Year 10 on Topic Area 1: The rights of service users in health and social care settings. This is to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1.1 Types of care settings, understanding both health and social care • 1.2 The rights of service users, knowing the 5 rights; Choice, Confidentiality, Consultation, Equal and fair treatment and Protection from abuse and harm • 1.3 The benefits to service users’ health and wellbeing when their rights are maintained, being able to give examples of how maintaining rights will benefit service users’ health and wellbeing and linking these benefits to rights in health and social care settings. Students will then cover new content Topic Area 2: Person-centred values. This is to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2.1 Person-centred values and how they are applied by service providers, be able to know the meaning of person-centred values and give examples of how the person-centred values can be applied in health and social care settings by service providers. Know the qualities required of a service practitioner. Know the meaning of the 6Cs and be able to give examples of how service practitioners use the 6Cs to inform and deliver person-centred values. • 2.2 Benefits of applying the person-centred values, be able to give examples of how applying the person-centred values will benefit service providers and linking benefits of applying person-centred values in health and social care settings. • 2.3 Effects on service users’ health and wellbeing if person-centred values are not applied, be able to apply examples in all health and social care settings using all areas of PIES, confidently analyse the effects and making connections between the PIES on service users health and wellbeing. 	Service user Professional Setting Empowerment High self-esteem Confidence and trust Individuality Choice Rights Independence Privacy Dignity Respect Partnership Encouraging decision making of service user Care Compassion Competence Communication Courage Commitment Standardisation of care PIES Malnutrition Dehydration Low self-esteem Social interaction	Students will complete assessments after each topic area covered and also during this term will complete their mock examination. Assessments will follow the same format as the examination to practice technique and broaden understanding.

Subject Curriculum Overview for Academic Year 2024/25

	Students will continue with new content Topic Area 3: Effective communication in health and social care settings. This is to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 3.1 The importance of verbal communication skills in health and social care settings, understand the range of verbal communication skills and how and when they could be used with service users in health and social care settings • 3.2 The importance of non-verbal communication skills in health and social care settings, how and when they could be used with service users in health and social care settings • 3.3 The importance of active listening in health and social care settings • 3.4 The importance of special methods of communication in health and social care settings • 3.5 The importance of effective communication in health and social care settings and knowing the impact of poor communication skills The final content is Topic Area 4: Protecting service users and service providers in health and social care settings. This is to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 4.1 Safeguarding, having a good knowledge of the individuals who need safeguarding and be able to assess the impacts for service users of a lack of safeguarding. Know the safeguarding procedures in care settings and the training that is mandatory by staff. Be able to know the levels of clearance required within the disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) • 4.2 Infection prevention. Know the reasons for carrying out infection prevention in different types of care settings and how they protect the health and wellbeing of service providers and service users in different types of health and social care settings. • 4.3 Safety procedures and measures and be able to know and give examples on the difference between a 'procedure' and a 'measure' • 4.4 How security measures protect service users and staff, know the reasons for security measures in different types of health and social care settings and how they protect the health and wellbeing of service users and service providers 	Adapting type/method of communicating to meet the needs of the service user or the situation Clarity Empathy Patience Using appropriate vocabulary Tone Volume Pace Willingness to contribute to team working Eye contact Facial expressions Gestures Positioning Space Height Personal space Positive body language Sense of humour active listening Advocate Braille British Sign Language Interpreters Makaton Voice activated software Moving and handling techniques
--	--	---	--

Subject Curriculum Overview for Academic Year 2024/25

Subject: Health and Social Care		Subject Leader: Bethan Woolley	Year Group: 11	SUMMER TERM
Topic	Key Learning Points	Key Vocabulary	Assessments
R032 - Revision	End Point: Students will be able to apply the four topic areas to a range of different examination questions to be fully prepared for the external examination Students will revisit all four topic areas and will strengthen their knowledge and breadth of understanding and address any misconceptions. Students will practice for the format of the exam which will have three questions that will be set with a situation or scenario. They will practice 6 mark extended response questions that will require students to provide an extended answer when showing their knowledge and understanding. They will practice an 8 mark extended response question which will assess Performance Objective 3 being able to include discussion or evaluation.		This unit is assessed by an exam. The exam is 1 hour and 15 minutes and has 70 marks in total. The exam will have 6 compulsory questions. Question types include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • short and medium answer • extended response. This allows assessment of the following Performance Objectives: PO1 – Recall knowledge and show understanding PO2 – Apply knowledge and understanding PO3 – Analyse and evaluate knowledge, understanding and performance.

Subject Curriculum Overview for Academic Year 2024/25

How parents can support learning in the subject this academic year

It is important students have an awareness of the vast amount of news stories linked to HSC and EY. We encourage families to discuss cases in the news, watch relevant documentaries and encourage wider reading around this subject to broaden their knowledge. Health and social care is an ever evolving subject so keeping up to date will positively impact their experience on this course.

Recommended Reading

These following websites may be of use:

- <https://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/cambridge-nationals/health-and-social-care-level-1-2-j835/>
- <https://www.scie.org.uk/>
- <https://www.theguardian.com/society>

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zbp2scw>

Points to note

Occasionally students may reflect on personal experience when discussing case studies. We never expect students to divulge private or personal circumstances.